

to: Anna
from: Rachel Warren

Thursday, January 5th 106

A A Little

Something So you

Can remember your

MOM.

to: Anna
from: Rachel Warren

Dear, Anna

I didn't know your mom very good, but I heard lots of wonderful things about her. She was, funny, nice, loving, caring and lots of other things. Anna I know how it feels to lose someone close, so I have decided to write you a story. This probably won't matter too much because you're going to get so much stuff from all the other students but here goes nothing. This story is to tell you what your mom was like.

have done with you

The Perfect

MOM

Next page ->

One day a young woman became a teacher. She was so excited to teach. It

It was her first day of school. Everyone was so excited about starting school. The young woman taught grade primary.

Her name was Mrs. Gallant. Mrs. Gallant was also very excited.

The school year was very fun for Mrs. Gallant. All the kids loved her. She got presents at Christmas. Mrs. Gallant loved her class.

Then the school year was over. She felt happy for her class but she now she would miss them. Mrs. Gallant

Mrs. Gallant did some inviroflier for the school and some of the kids she taught were in that, it made her happy.

Mrs. Gallant loved art. She started up a art club.... but then something bad happened... something terrible, but I will not talk about that. Bad things happen every day, but not one of those people are forgotten. We will never forget Mrs. Gallant. Anna you may not remember your mom but she will always be in your heart, and she will always watch over you.